

A New Technical Services Manager for Sharmans

Itac's Delvemade division markets all its Seamsil and Delcote products through HD Sharman. To help bolster the team and the on-going increase in business, Charlie Boxall has been appointed Technical Services Manager. He brings a good level of knowledge and experience from a variety of previous roles within the construction sector. For the last five years Charlie has worked as a maintenance surveyor. Much of his time involved specifying refurbishment and repairs to roofs to prevent and stop water ingress. Charlie supports Spurs and Chelmsford City, he also coaches his son's youth football team. He holidays in Greece and Cornwall, and enjoys listening to Orbital (the electronic dance music duo) and lists 'The Hitchhikers Guide to the Galaxy' as his favourite book.
